

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is unconscionable.

I do not understand how a coordinated, one-sided, network-wide partisan attack could possibly be regarded as the anything but a clear --even impudent-- violation of the public interest requirement of Sinclair's broadcast license. The airways do not belong to Sinclair, and its privilege to use them is conditional.

This is a hideous example of the very evil that opponents of recent media consolidation warned us against.

In the name of American Democracy I ask you to enforce the law, and stop this shameless violation of the terms of Sinclair's broadcast licenses.

Sincerely,
William Brinker
